Artwork: Critical Mass

The featured artwork on our website was submitted as part of an open call for pieces responding to the Review's focus on advancing understandings of statelessness and citizenship phenomena and challenges. 'Critical Mass' has been developed by architect and artist Wasim Z Habashneh. The artist's statement is as follows:

Using the traditional sand art practiced in Jordan to fill discarded fluorescent tubes with pixelated patterns.

This pattern reflects the critical mass, a term that indicates the sufficient number of adopters of innovation in a social system, so that the rate of adoption becomes self-sustaining and creates further growth. The layers of sand are positioned to resemble the transition phase of a critical mass affecting the existing mass.

The sand particles resemble the human presence and necessity in such an environment.

The piece questions the definition of a normal and healthy community: statelessness and citizenship are now an inevitable reality in our world, therefore finding ways to include them in our collective pattern is as important as retaining the current one.
